PREAMBLE

Office and Professional Workers are wage earners and are generally underpaid and otherwise exploited, and should, for their own protection, combine with their fellow workers in a trade union, affiliated with the Office and Professional Employees International Union.

The aims and objectives of this Local Union are to unite all eligible office and professional workers in one organization and thus secure such unity of sentiment and action as will enable us by the power and influence of associated effort to elevate our social, material, moral and intellectual welfare.

It shall provide all possible aid, assistance and guidance to its membership, to the end that all eligible workers may share in the benefits resulting from employment under the terms of signed collective bargaining agreements which provide:

1. Adequate compensation for service performed;
2. Shorter hours of employment and proper pay for overtime and holiday work;
3. The maximum possible job security and assurance of advancement opportunities;
4. Adequate annual paid vacation and sick leave allowances sufficient to meet all normal exigencies;
5. Equitable grievance handling procedures;
6. Adequate health, welfare, pension and life insurance programs;
7. Other justifiable employment protections.

It is also the purpose and aim of this Local Union to provide means for the intellectual development of our members and to educate them in the principles of unionism.

We firmly believe that only by and through a trade union can the office and professional workers secure and maintain a position guaranteeing a livelihood according to decent American standards.
